

HOLY TRINITY ANGLICAN CHURCH WILLIAMSTOWN

14th May 2023

Sixth Sunday of Easter & Mothers' Day

8am & 10am Holy Communion

On behalf of everyone at Holy Trinity, a warm welcome to this community, a faithful Christian presence in Williamstown since 1854. Holy Trinity welcomes everyone to all services and events, regardless of age, gender, sexual orientation, race or background. We are moved by our calling as the Body of Christ to ensure all our spaces are safe places for everyone. Thank you for being part of our worship today. This worship service will also be available on the parish YouTube channel from Sunday, links are on our website under 'Services'.

REFLECTION

This Mothers' Day, we give thanks and pray for all mothers and mother-figures in our lives who have given so much love and care and inspiration, may they know our gratitude. We pray for mothers who are unsafe and worried for their children, that they will find safety and protection. We pray for mothers who feel overwhelmed, that they will find support and encouragement. We remember mothers now at eternal rest with God, and those who still grieve, remembering that love never ends. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

PARISH PRAYER POINTS

For The Church:

- The Church of the Province of West Africa

Holy Trinity Anglican Church is on Bunurong Country, the sovereign land of the Yalukit Willam people of the Kulin Nation. We recognise and honour the Indigenous custodians of this land over generations and today, and pay respect to all Elders past and present. We commit ourselves to the path of reconciliation, truth-telling, justice and healing.

Please join in the parts of this service in bold type. All directions to stand, sit or kneel are invitations. Please always do as you are comfortable and able.

At 10am Words for hymns are in the red hymn books or sheets provided if they are not printed here.

(please stand)

At 10am Opening Hymn: TIS 360 part 2 This Eastertide.

GATHERING IN GOD'S NAME

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.

THE SENTENCE

‘Those who love me will keep my word,’ Jesus promises, ‘and my Father will love them, and we will come to them and make our home with them.’ John 14.23

PRAYER OF PREPARATION

Let us pray.

Almighty God, to whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hidden: cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy name, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

KYRIE ELEISON (may be sung at 10am)

Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

Christ, have mercy. Christ, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

THE CONFESSION

Christ our Passover Lamb has been offered for us, therefore we come to celebrate the festival

Silence may be kept.

Let us confess our sins in penitence and faith, with a sincere and a true heart.

Merciful God, you have loved us with an everlasting love, but we have broken your holy laws and have left undone what we ought to have done. We are sorry for our sins and turn away from them. For the sake of your Son who died for us, forgive us, cleanse us and change us. By your Holy Spirit, enable us to live for you; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ABSOLUTION

Almighty God who has promised forgiveness to all who turn to God in faith: pardon you and set you free from all your sins, strengthen you in all goodness and keep you in eternal life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE GLORIA (may be sung at 10am)

Glory to God in the highest and peace to God's people on earth. Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father, we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory. Lord Jesus Christ, only son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us; you are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

THE COLLECT PRAYERS

For the day

O God, you have prepared for those who love you joys beyond our understanding: pour into our hearts such love for you, that, loving you above all else, we may obtain your promises that exceed all we can desire; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

For growth

God of Mission, who alone brings growth to your Church: send your Holy Spirit to give Vision to our planning, Wisdom to our actions, and Power to our Witness. Help our church to grow in numbers, in spiritual commitment to you, and in service to our local community, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE MINISTRY OF THE WORD (please sit)

The First Reading Acts 17.22–31. Read by Wilma Robarts at 8am, Warren Madsen at 10am.

Then Paul stood in front of the Areopagus and said, ‘Athenians, I see how extremely religious you are in every way. For as I went through the city and looked carefully at the objects of your worship, I found among them an altar with the inscription, “To an unknown god.” What therefore you worship as unknown, this I proclaim to you. The God who made the world and everything in it, he who is Lord of heaven and earth, does not live in shrines made by human hands, nor is he served by human hands, as though he needed anything, since he himself gives to all mortals life and breath and all things. From one ancestor he made all nations to inhabit the whole earth, and he allotted the times of their existence and the boundaries of the places where they would live so that they would search for God and perhaps grope for him and find him—though indeed he is not far from each one of us. For “In him we live and move and have our being”; as even some of your own poets have said, “For we too are his offspring.” Since we are God’s offspring, we ought not to think that the deity is like gold, or silver, or stone, an image formed by the art and imagination of mortals. While God has overlooked the times of human ignorance, now he commands all people everywhere to repent, because he has fixed a day on which he will have the world judged in righteousness by a man whom he has appointed, and of this he has given assurance to all by raising him from the dead.'

For the Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Psalm: 66.7-19.

⁷ O bless our God, you peoples:

and cause his praises to resound,

⁸ Who has held our souls in life:

who has not suffered our feet to slip.

⁹ For you have proved us, O God:

you have tried us as silver is tried.

¹⁰ You brought us into the net:

you laid sharp torment on our loins.

¹¹ You let our enemies ride over our heads,

we went through fire and water:

but you brought us out into a place of liberty.

¹² I will come into your house with burnt-offerings:

and I will pay you my vows,

¹³ The vows that opened my lips:

that my mouth uttered when I was in trouble.

¹⁴ I will offer you burnt-offerings of fattened beasts,

with the sweet smoke of rams:

I will sacrifice a bull and the flesh of goats.

¹⁵ Come then and hear, all you that fear God:

and I will tell what he has done for me.

¹⁶ I called to him with my mouth:

and his praise was on my tongue.

¹⁷ If I had cherished wickedness in my heart:

the Lord would not have heard me.

¹⁸ But God has heard me:

he has heeded the voice of my prayer.

¹⁹ Praise be to God: who has not turned back my prayer, or his steadfast love from me.

The Second Reading: 1 Peter 3.8–22. Read by Wilma Robarts at 8am, Warren Madsen at 10am.

Finally, all of you, have unity of spirit, sympathy, love for one another, a tender heart, and a humble mind. Do not repay evil for evil or abuse for abuse; but, on the contrary, repay with a blessing. It is for this that you were called—that you might inherit a blessing. For ‘Those who desire life and desire to see good days, let them keep their tongues from evil and their lips from speaking deceit; let them turn away from evil and do good; let them seek peace and pursue it. For the eyes of the Lord are on the righteous, and his ears are open to their prayer. But the face of the Lord is against those who do evil.’ Now who will harm you if you are eager to do what is good? But even if you do suffer for doing what is right, you are blessed. Do not fear what they fear, and do not be intimidated, but in your hearts sanctify Christ as Lord. Always be ready to make your defence to anyone who demands from you an account of the hope that is in you; yet do it with gentleness and reverence. Keep your conscience clear, so that, when you are maligned, those who abuse you for your good conduct in Christ may be put to shame. For it is better to suffer for doing good, if suffering should be God’s will, than to suffer for doing evil. For Christ also suffered for sins once for all, the righteous for the unrighteous, in order to bring you to God. He was put to death in the flesh, but made alive in the spirit, in which also he went and made a proclamation to the spirits in prison, who in former times did not obey, when God waited patiently in the days of Noah, during the building of the ark, in which a few, that is, eight people, were saved through water. And baptism, which this prefigured, now saves you—not as a removal of dirt from the body, but as an appeal to God for a good conscience, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, who has gone into heaven and is at the right hand of God, with angels, authorities, and powers made subject to him.

For the Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

(please stand)

At 10am Gradual Hymn: TIS 331 Sing my tongue.

The Gospel according to John 14.15–21.

Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Jesus said ‘If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate, to be with you for ever. This is the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, because he abides with you, and he will be in you. ‘I will not leave you orphaned; I am coming to you. In a little while the world will no longer see me, but you will see me; because I live, you also will live. On that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you. They who have my commandments and keep them are those who love me; and those who love me will be loved by my Father, and I will love them and reveal myself to them.’

For the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

(please sit)

THE SERMON

Rev. Elaine Ryan, locum vicar

A time of silence is kept

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH (please stand)

We believe in one God, who made and loves all that is.

We believe in Jesus Christ, God’s only Son, our Lord, who was born, lived, died and rose again, and is coming to call all to account.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, who calls, equips and sends out God’s people, and brings all things to their true end.

This is our faith, the faith of the Church:

We believe in one God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Amen.

THE PRAYERS (please sit or kneel) Led by a Rev. Elaine at 8am, Jill Ringrose at 10am.

The response is usually . . . in your mercy. Hear our prayer.

This time of prayer concludes with

Almighty God you have promised to hear our prayers,

Grant that what we have asked in faith we may by your grace receive, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE GREETING OF PEACE (please stand)

We are the body of Christ.

His spirit is with us.

The peace of the Lord be always with you.

And also with you.

Offerings – A collection will be taken up at this time

Donations to support the life & work of Holy Trinity are most welcome. We rely on your generosity to enable us to serve our community. Cash donations & cheques can be left in the plate.

At 10am Offertory Hymn: TIS 517 Hallelujah.

THE OFFERTORY

Blessed are you, Lord, God of all creation. Through your goodness we have these gifts to share. Accept and use our offerings for your glory and for the service of your kingdom.

Blessed be God forever.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

The prayer continues

...forever praising you and saying: (may be sung at 10am)

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

The prayer continues

... Let us proclaim the mystery of faith. (may be sung at 10am)

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

The prayer continues

...in songs of neverending praise: (may be sung at 10am)

Blessing and honour and glory and power are yours for ever and ever. Amen.

As our Saviour Christ has taught us, we are confident to pray:

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours now and forever. Amen.

HOLY COMMUNION

As this bread was once many grains which have been gathered together and made one bread, so may your church be gathered from the ends of the earth into your kingdom.

(may be sung at 10am)

Jesus, Lamb of God, have mercy on us.

Jesus, bearer of our sins, have mercy on us.

Jesus, redeemer of the world, grant us your peace.

The gifts of God for the people of God. Come let us take this holy sacrament in remembrance that Christ died for us, and feed on him in our hearts by faith with thanksgiving.

All baptised Christians are welcome to receive communion. If you require a gluten-free wafer, please let the priest know. If you do not wish to receive communion and would like to receive a blessing, please come forward and indicate to the priest your desire for a blessing by crossing your arms in front of you. You are also welcome to remain in your pew.

Everyone is welcome to light a candle while communion is being shared. There are two stations available, one to the left of the sanctuary, and another in the memorial chapel at the back of the church.

Prayers of Anointing & Healing are available at this time, when all have received communion. Please wait in the front pew near the candle stand to indicate this wish.

Communion is distributed with these or similar words

The body of Christ the bread of heaven keep you in eternal life.

Amen.

The blood of Christ the cup of salvation keep you in eternal life.

Amen.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

The priest leads the prayer, ending with

Loving God, take us and use us to love and serve you and all people, in the power of your Spirit and in the name of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Notices may be given

(please stand)

At 10am Final Hymn: TIS 367 The strife is past.

THE BLESSING

The God of peace, who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, the great shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make you perfect in every good work to do God's will; and the blessing of God almighty, Holy Eternal Majesty, Holy Incarnate Word, Holy Abiding Spirit, be among you and remain with you always. Amen.

Go in peace to love and serve the Lord. Alleluia! Alleluia!
In the name of Christ. Alleluia! Alleluia!

Our conversations continue over refreshments and all are welcome, at Cocoa Latte café in Ferguson Street after 8am worship, and in the Parish Centre after 10am worship.

HTW GROUPS

A great way to connect with people who share your interests.

WOMEN OF HOLY TRINITY (WOHT)

WOHT meets on the second Thursday of the month 7.30-9.30pm. Please contact Barb Hingston (0424 466 405 - text if you can't get through on the phone), or Delia Paul (0432 562 454), for more info. Much of our communication is through a WhatsApp group, so ask Barb or Delia about joining. The next gathering will be Thursday 8th June either in the Parish Centre or as advised in WhatsApp.

GARDENING GROUP

Keen and diligent gardeners meet anytime between 9.30am–2.30pm on the second Saturday of each month. All welcome to help with tasks for all levels of ability and energy in and around the church and vicarage grounds. At our last working bee, we had some enthusiastic neighbours join in AND they planted the new Leucadendron, a wonderful experience of community building connection. We were very grateful for their help. They really appreciate the Car park gardens. The next gathering will be the 10th June but you are welcome to potter in the gardens between meetings.

ADA CAMBRIDGE BOOK GROUP

The book groups next gathering is on Wednesday the 24th May, 12 noon in the Parish Centre and our book is The Wife and the Widow, by Christian White.

MEN'S CHURCH GROUP (MCG)

MCG has started back. For more information and to join the WhatsApp group, contact Scott Phillips, Authorised Lay Minister, sphillips@kpcl.com.au 0411 751 755. The next gathering is Friday 26th May 7.30pm at 'Stag's Head Hotel', Corner Cecil and Ann Streets.

TEXTILE & DESIGN GROUP

This group of keen and creative makers usually meets on the 4th Saturday of the month, 2pm in the Parish Centre. Anyone interested in all things design and textile that add to our worship space is welcome to come along. The next gathering will be 27th May.

PARISH NEWS

VICAR ON LEAVE 12th-22nd May

Reverend Elizabeth will be on study leave from Friday 12th May and will return to work Tuesday 23rd May. For any urgent pastoral matters during this time, please contact Rev. Elaine Ryan on 0418 626 169. Rev. Joanna Hall will lead the Wednesday 10am Eucharist, and Rev. Elaine will lead the Sunday worship services. If you can help with ensuring that our church doors are opened and closed during the week, please confirm this with Pamela in the parish office.

PARISH BREAKFAST – 9am Sunday 28th May

The whole parish family is invited to a casual breakfast between worship services for the Feast of Pentecost, in the Parish Centre. A chance to connect across the congregations on this festival celebrating the coming of the Holy Spirit, we hope you can join us for fellowship and conversation. Gluten Free, Dairy Free and Vegetarian dietary requirements will be catered for.

WILMA'S PRESERVES

Wilma has: Cumquat Marmalade, 3 fruits Marmalade, Plum jam Fejoa chutney. A small amount of Apricot jam, & other varieties for sale at the back of the Church.

TALKING ABOUT FAITH & DOUBT THROUGH THE ARTS

Calling all creatives, Hayden Jones and Odelia Matthews invite you to join them for discussions about creative practice and they interact with matters of faith and belief. If you are an artist/creative in its broadest sense at any level, whether you work in words, music, canvas or clay, and you're interested in talking about how the spiritual and artistic interact, please join us in the Parish Centre, Sunday 28th May, 3-4.30pm. If there is enough interest, this could become a regular group here at Holy Trinity. As a prompt to conversation, think about a work of art (in its broadest sense: music, film, paintings, books etc.) that has touched you.

MUSICAL FUNDRAISER – Saturday 3rd June, 2pm
“All you need is Love”

Our very own Trinity Trio + will be playing their favourite Beatles songs in an afternoon concert in the church. This is a fundraiser for our work supporting our community. Tickets online through TryBooking <https://www.trybooking.com/CHXAD>, $15 each, children 5 and under enter free, or cash sales with the sign-up sheet. Please take flyers to promote this musical offering. We hope you can join us for this fun occasion.

TRINITY SUNDAY – FEAST OF NAMING Sunday 4th June

For this celebration at Holy Trinity, there will be the one worship service at 10am, with Bishop Brad Billings as our special guest preacher. After our worship service, we will have a Blessing and Dedication of the Creation Tapestries in the Parish Centre. Everyone is welcome to join us for this special celebration. We would also like to take this opportunity for a Parish Family group photo, so if you know a good photographer who could help us out on the day, let Rev. Elizabeth know.

CAN YOU HELP OUT?

As a parish family, the church site is like our home. As is the case in any family home, to keep it looking its best and most welcoming for everyone, there are various little jobs that always need to be done. On the church notice board, you will find a list of tasks that Rev. Elizabeth, the churchwardens, and members of Parish Council would really appreciate your help with from time to time. If you are able to help out (or have someone you'd like to volunteer with the right tools and ability) then put your name on the list and cross it off when the task is done.

We are already very grateful for all that people do, including, but not limited to, mowing the lawns, doing gardening, cleaning and tidying. Many hands make light work, so Thank You, in advance.

CONVERSATIONS AT THE CENTRE

We like to have discussions on all sort of matters here at Holy Trinity. Do join us on the first Wednesday of each month, 7.30-9pm in the Parish Centre for conversations about matters that matter.

Everyone is welcome to any of these conversations. Please bring any friends along who may be interested in the following topics. Thank you to all who joined us to learn more about Aboriginal Spirituality. Stay tuned for June's topic, and do let your friends and family know about our topic for July.

7th June: TBC

5th July: We will welcome The Rev. Canon Professor Uncle Glenn Loughrey to discuss with us The Statement from the Heart and how it relates to The Voice to Parliament.

2nd August: Parishioners Hayden Jones and Odelia Matthews on the topic of Creative Arts & Faith

If you have any thoughts and suggestions about speakers and topics, please contact Ingrid Dodd.
