REFLECTION

There is an important distinction between childish and child-like. God's universe is so wonderful and amazing, that I sincerely hope we never lose the sense of child-like wonder when we think about the awesome grace and love of God. Whether we're 9-months or 99 years old, we are all children of God, lovingly formed in the image of God, and should be prepared to receive the amazing gift of God's salvation with innocent wonder and delight.

At 10am Opening Hymn: TIS 179 Praise my soul

GATHERING IN GOD'S NAME

The Lord be with you. And also with you.

THE SENTENCE

Truly, I say to you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God like a child shall not enter it. Luke 18.17

PRAYER OF PREPARATION

Let us pray.

Almighty God, to whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hidden: cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy name, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

KYRIE ELEISON (may be sung at 10am)

Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

Christ, have mercy. Christ, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

THE CONFESSION

God is steadfast in love and infinite in mercy.

Silence may be kept.

Let us therefore bring our sins before the one true God, in penitence and faith.

Merciful God, you have loved us with an everlasting love, but we have broken your holy laws and have left undone what we ought to have done. We are sorry for our sins and turn away from them. For the sake of your Son who died for us, forgive us, cleanse us and change us. By your Holy Spirit, enable us to live for you; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ABSOLUTION

Almighty God who has promised forgiveness to all who turn to God in faith: pardon you and set you free from all your sins, strengthen you in all goodness and keep you in eternal life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE GLORIA (may be sung at 10am)

Glory to God in the highest and peace to God's people on earth. Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father, we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory. Lord Jesus Christ, only son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us; you are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen

THE COLLECT

Almighty and everlasting God, give to us the increase of faith, hope and love; and, that we may obtain what you promise, make us to love what you command; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE MINISTRY OF THE WORD (please sit)

The First Reading: Joel 2.23-32. Read by Valerie Dripps at 8am, Laurence Gray at 10am.

O children of Zion, be glad and rejoice in the Lord your God; for he has given the early rain for your vindication, he has poured down for you abundant rain, the early and the later rain, as before. The threshing-floors shall be full of grain, the vats shall overflow with wine and oil I will repay you for the years that the swarming locust has eaten, the hopper, the destroyer, and the cutter, my great army, which I sent against you. You shall eat in plenty and be satisfied, and praise the name of the Lord your God, who has dealt wondrously with you. And my people shall never again be put to shame. You shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I, the Lord, am your God and there is no other. And my people shall never again be put to shame. Then afterwards I will pour out my spirit on all flesh; your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, and your young men shall see visions. Even on the male and female slaves, in those days, I will pour out my spirit. I will show portents in the heavens and on the earth, blood and fire and columns of smoke. The sun shall be turned to darkness, and the moon to blood, before the great and terrible day of the Lord comes. Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved; for in Mount Zion and in Jerusalem there shall be those who escape, as the Lord has said, and among the survivors shall be those whom the Lord calls.

For the Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Psalm 65

¹ You are to be praised, O God, in Zion:

to you shall vows be paid, you that answer prayer.

² To you shall all flesh come to confess their sins:
when our misdeeds prevail against us,
you will purge them away.

- ³ Blessed are those whom you choose and take to yourself to dwell within your courts:
we shall be filled with the good things of your house,
of your holy temple.
- ⁴ You will answer us in your righteousness
with terrible deeds, O God our saviour:
you that are the hope of all the ends of the earth
and of the distant seas;
- ⁵ Who by your strength made fast the mountains:
you that are girded with power;
- ⁶ Who stilled the raging of the seas,
the roaring of the waves:
and the tumult of the peoples.
- ⁷ Those who dwell at the ends of the earth
are afraid at your wonders:
the dawn and the evening sing your praises.
- ⁸ You tend the earth and water it:
you make it rich and fertile.
- ⁹ The river of God is full of water:
and so providing for the earth,
you provide grain for us all.
- ¹⁰ You drench its furrows, you level the ridges between:
you soften it with showers and bless its early growth.
- ¹¹ You crown the year with your goodness:
and the tracks where you have passed drip with fatness.
- ¹² The pastures of the wilderness run over:
and the hills are girded with joy.
- ¹³ The meadows are clothed with sheep:
and the valleys stand so thick with corn,
they shout for joy and sing.

The Second Reading: Timothy 4.6-8, 4.16-18. Read by Valerie Dripps at 8am, Laurence Gray at 10am.

As for me, I am already being poured out as a libation, and the time of my departure has come. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. From now on there is reserved for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give to me on that day, and not only to me but also to all who have longed for his appearing. At my first defence no one came to my support, but all deserted me. May it not be counted against them! But the Lord stood by me and gave me strength, so that through me the message might be fully proclaimed and all the Gentiles might hear it. So I was rescued from the lion's mouth. The Lord will rescue me from every evil attack and save me for his heavenly kingdom. To him be the glory for ever and ever. Amen.

For the Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

(please stand)

At 10am Gradual Hymn: TIS 647 Comfort, comfort

The Gospel according to Luke 18.15-30

Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

People were bringing even infants to him that he might touch them; and when the disciples saw it, they sternly ordered them not to do it. But Jesus called for them and said, 'Let the little children come to me, and do not stop them; for it is to such as these that the kingdom of God belongs. Truly I tell you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will never enter it.' A certain ruler asked him, 'Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?' Jesus said to him, 'Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. You know the commandments: "You shall not commit adultery; You shall not murder; You shall not steal; You shall not bear false witness; Honour your father and mother." ' He replied, 'I have kept all these since my youth.' When Jesus heard this, he said to him, 'There is still one thing lacking. Sell all that you own and distribute the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.' But when he heard this, he became sad; for he was very rich. Jesus looked at him and said, 'How hard it is for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God! Indeed, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God.' Those who heard it said, 'Then who can be saved?' He replied, 'What is impossible for mortals is possible for God.' Then Peter said, 'Look, we have left our homes and followed you.' And he said to them, 'Truly I tell you, there is no one who has left house or wife or brothers or parents or children, for the sake of the kingdom of God, who will not get back very much more in this age, and in the age to come eternal life.'

For the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours now and forever. Amen.

so may your church be gathered from the ends of the earth into your kingdom.

For 2023, we will be moving to a quarterly publication of The Pilot, and the rosters will be treated as a separate job through the parish office. So, if you are good with desktop publishing and would love to be involved in collecting and telling the brilliant stories from in and around the parish, we'd love to hear from you. Parish Council Report October 2022

Apologies: Tom Verghese, Anna Grove

Present: Rev Elizabeth Murray (Chairman) Jill Ringrose, Janice Schmidt, Scott Phillips, Laurence Grey, Ingrid Dodd

Opening Prayer: The vicar opened the meeting with prayer

Minutes of the Parish Council Meeting held on 1st. September, previously circulated, were approved

Business Arising from the Minutes:

(i) Community Music Jam – it was agreed that it had gone very well and had been most enjoyable. It would be good to have song sheets next time – Janice offered a number. The next one would be held probably in March 2023

(ii) High Tea – A great success. The final income was still to be advised. It was good to have many outsiders present. The vicar thanked the organisers: Judy White, Wilma Robarts and Ingrid Dodd for their hard work. It was hoped to have a tea (not so lavish) combined with a vicarage tour next year.

General Business:

1. Compliance Calendar: Annual financial report and Q1 reports in hand. The vicar reminded those present that any reports they have to submit to the Annual Parish Meeting were due by 27th October, to be sent in Word Document format by email to the vicar.

2. Vicar's Report: Work on the outside Notice Board was progressing. Mr Danaher had worked on both the roofs of the church and of the Parish Centre.

3. Wardens' Report: (i) Scott had met Con Bourakis: the Parish Centre side door had been rehung and the glass reset, the internal doors had also been adjusted – all work under warranty. The rust on the door handles had been removed – it can be prevented by rubbing with a light oil from time to time.

(ii) A quote for $1800 to provide flashing on the back wall of the Parish Centre to prevent water coming into the building was accepted – work of on-going maintenance not under original warranty.

(iii) Cracking on back wall could be fixed by repointing – no structural issues involved.

(iv) The provision of the paling fence at the side of the vicarage garden had been queried – this work had been done with the requisite permissions from the heritage bodies, it had replaced the existing chicken wire fence and was essential for the security of the vicarage and matched paling fencing elsewhere on site. HBCC advised that a retrospective permit be applied for, which is being done.

(v) The suggestion that the drainage/sewerage of the Parish Centre needed attention would be further clarified by Ingrid. If necessary, Red Dog Plumbing would be contacted and the decommissioned fire hose under the fig tree could be removed at the same time.

(vi) An electrician was needed to deal with the flashing light at the back of the building and to fix the front spotlight.

(vii) The vicar and Scott would meet with the Parish administrator for regular review.

4. Finance Report: The reports had been previously circulated.

(i) The monthly narrative for September:

Finance report for Sept 2022 - Laurence Gray, Treasurer

Submitted to the Parish Council meeting Oct 6th

- Over all for Holy Trinity Williamstown income from regular giving is 11% above budget. The monthly giving of $5,972 was $612 more than anticipated.

- Running costs of the community centre ($425) were not offset by income from hire ($1350)

- Wedding income for July was $750

- Income for the month was $10,664 is higher than the budgeted income $6,320

- Total expenses for the month of $15,173 are $3,075 higher than budgeted $12,098

- HTW has drawn $4,909 from reserves to cover the shortfall of September

(ii) The preliminary annual figures were discussed:

The cost of locums during the year was discussed as it had come to more than budgeted for. The diocese requires Holy Communion to be provided every Sunday except in exceptional circumstances, when an authorised lay minister could provide the reserved sacrament – Scott was willing to be trained for this role.

The figures for the stipends had only just been published.

Laurence underlined the fact that the parish was still running a deficit budget. It was agreed that the new Parish Council would agree points for discussion which would then be taken to a meeting of the bishop, Rev Elizabeth the wardens and the treasurer. It would be necessary to have a plan to work on with the diocese, who would hopefully help with strategy and financial advice. The financial situation of the parish will form part of Rev. Elizabeth's 3-year appointment review.

It was likely that the way the diocese 'does parish' will be discussed at synod next week. The assumption was still that the stipend would be paid from plate giving – an outdated assumption.

The new Parish Assessment had been received which showed a $10,000 difference between the HTW figure submitted and the diocese's demand. It was agreed this would be discussed at a meeting between Elizabeth, Laurence and Peter Munns, the chief financial officer of the diocese. Sincere thanks was expressed by Elizabeth and the PC to Laurence and Ian for all their hard work on behalf of the church.

Elizabeth reported that the new donations box was being used regularly, so affirming the decision to install it.

Janice reported that unfortunately the baker was unable to produce cakes and shortbread dough for the Christmas Fayre and Liz White was not able to produce mince pies either. The congregation would be asked for suggestions as to how to proceed with this important fund-raising event.

5. Safe Ministry: Laurence and Janice were reminded to complete Level 3 training. The volunteer register was being reviewed and updated.

6. Pastoral Care: Home Communion were continuing. A meeting of those on the parish Pastoral Care team would be organised. Elizabeth reminded all that she should be advised of any needs, far preferable that she be told several times than that the assumption that someone else has told her be made. Also, as her ministry started just before lockdown, she might not be aware of the absence of some who had been regulars hitherto.

The importance of making links with Aged Care Facilities was agreed – the church is committed to everyone throughout their lives, whether or not they are present in church. Scott would be organising the Men's Church Group resuming in 2023. The importance of the church being open was stressed – it is often visited and performs a Ministry of Presence, a safe place whatever the need or impulse to enter.

7. Worship Times: Ingrid proposed that there could be a single, 9am service during the winter months of June, July and August as a means of uniting the two congregations, both in church and afterwards at Morning Tea. It would avoid a dark start to the day and not cut into the morning when the days are short. Both could be considerations for families with children attending sports or visiting etc.. Those preferring a service without music would still be catered for on a Wednesday morning. It was agreed to consider and discuss this proposal further.

There being no further business the meeting closed with the grace
