REFLECTION

Mary Magdalene, whose surname is most likely a nickname given to her by Jesus (meaning “tower of strength”), is the first to meet the risen Christ in this [John’s] Gospel. The later church gave her the title “apostle of the apostles”, emphasising her apostolic role and her significance in the spread of the good news. In John’s Gospel, she is the first to see and fully to believe, the first to be given the commission, the first to announce Jesus’ triumph over death. Her joyful announcement, “I have seen the Lord!” (20:18), is the formal Christian proclamation of the resurrection, as well as the deeply personal experience on which it is based.

2 Corinthians 5.14–15

PRAYER OF PREPARATION

Let us pray.

Almighty God, to whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hidden: cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy name, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

KYRIE ELEISON (may be sung at 10am)

Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

Christ, have mercy. Christ, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

THE CONFESSION

God is steadfast in love and infinite in mercy.

Silence may be kept.

Let us therefore bring our sins before the one true God, in penitence and faith.

Merciful God, you have loved us with an everlasting love, but we have broken your holy laws and have left undone what we ought to have done. We are sorry for our sins and turn away from them. For the sake of your Son who died for us, forgive us, cleanse us and change us. By your Holy Spirit, enable us to live for you; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ABSOLUTION

Almighty God who has promised forgiveness to all who turn to God in faith: pardon you and set you free from all your sins, strengthen you in all goodness and keep you in eternal life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE GLORIA (may be sung at 10am)

Glory to God in the highest and peace to God's people on earth. Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father, we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory. Lord Jesus Christ, only son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us; you are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen

THE COLLECT

Almighty God, whose Son called Mary Magdalene to be a witness of his resurrection: mercifully grant that by your grace we may be forgiven and healed, and may know you in the power of your Son's risen life; who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

THE MINISTRY OF THE WORD (please sit)

The First Reading: Song of Songs 3.1-4a. Read by Judy White at 8am, Laurence Gray at 10am.

Upon my bed at night I sought him whom my soul loves; I sought him, but found him not; I called him, but he gave no answer. 'I will rise now and go about the city, in the streets and in the squares; I will seek him whom my soul loves.' I sought him, but found him not. The sentinels found me, as they went about in the city.

'Have you seen him whom my soul loves?' Scarcely had I passed them, when I found him whom my soul loves. I held him, and would not let him go until I brought him into my mother's house, and into the chamber of her that conceived me.

For the Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Psalm 63

<sup>1</sup> O God, you are my God:
eagerly will I seek you.

<sup>2</sup> My soul thirsts for you, my flesh longs for you:
as a dry and thirsty land where no water is.

<sup>3</sup> So it was when I beheld you in the sanctuary:
and saw your power and your glory.

<sup>4</sup> For your unchanging goodness is better than life:
therefore my lips shall praise you.

<sup>5</sup> And so I will bless you as long as I live:
and in your name will I lift my hands on high.

<sup>6</sup> My longing shall be satisfied as with marrow and fatness:
my mouth shall praise you with exultant lips.

<sup>7</sup> When I remember you upon my bed:
when I meditate upon you in the night watches,

<sup>8</sup> How you have been my helper:
then I sing for joy in the shadow of your wings,

<sup>9</sup> Then my soul clings to you:
and your right hand upholds me.

- <sup>10</sup> Those that seek my life are marked for destruction:
they shall go down to the deep places of the earth.
- <sup>11</sup> They shall be delivered to the sword:
they shall be a portion for jackals.
- <sup>12</sup> The king will rejoice in God,
and all who take oaths on his name shall glory:
but the mouths of liars shall be stopped.

The Second Reading: 2 Corinthians 5.14-21. Read by Judy White at 8am, Laurence Gray at 10am.

For the love of Christ urges us on, because we are convinced that one has died for all; therefore all have died. And he died for all, so that those who live might live no longer for themselves, but for him who died and was raised for them. From now on, therefore, we regard no one from a human point of view; even though we once knew Christ from a human point of view, we know him no longer in that way. So if anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation: everything old has passed away; see, everything has become new! All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ, and has given us the ministry of reconciliation; that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting the message of reconciliation to us. So we are ambassadors for Christ, since God is making his appeal through us; we entreat you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.
For the Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

(please stand)

At 10am Gradual Hymn: TIS 661 vv. 4, 7 & 8.

Woman in the night

The Gospel according to St. John 20.1-18
Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved, and said to them, 'They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him.' Then Peter and the other disciple set out and went towards the tomb. The two were running together, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first. He bent down to look in and saw the linen wrappings lying there, but he did not go in. Then Simon Peter came, following him, and went into the tomb. He saw the linen wrappings lying there, and the cloth that had been on Jesus' head, not lying with the linen wrappings but rolled up in a place by itself. Then the other disciple, who reached the tomb first, also went in, and he saw and believed; for as yet they did not understand the scripture, that he must rise from the dead. Then the disciples returned to their homes. But Mary stood weeping outside the tomb. As she wept, she bent over to look into the tomb; and she saw two angels in white, sitting where the body of Jesus had been lying, one at the head and the other at the feet. They said to her, 'Woman, why are you weeping?' She said to them, 'They have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid him.' When she had said this, she turned round and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to her, 'Woman, why are you weeping? For whom are you looking?' Supposing him to be the gardener, she said to him, 'Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away.' Jesus said to her, 'Mary!' She turned and said to him in Hebrew, 'Rabbouni!' (which means Teacher). Jesus said to her, 'Do not hold on to me, because I have not yet ascended to the Father. But go to my brothers and say to them, "I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God." ' Mary Magdalene went and announced to the disciples, 'I have seen the Lord'; and she told them that he had said these things to her.

RESILIENCE IN A CHANGING CLIMATE
Wednesdays 3rd, 10th, 17th, 24th & 31st August.
7.30-9pm Holy Trinity Williamstown Parish Centre

The question of why disasters happen has plagued people of faith for thousands of years. A part of coping can involve the acknowledgment that there are no simple answers, but also knowing that God is with us in the midst of suffering. For people of faith, our understanding of Scripture can also help or hinder our actions – so it is imperative that we unpack what God says about times of crisis, change and the environment we live in so that we can respond well.

This is the premise of a brand new series of Bible studies produced by CAN DO consortium partners of which Anglican Overseas Aid is a member. The studies have been developed by Pacific church leaders, drawing on the voices and experiences of people from the Solomon Islands, Fiji, PNG and Vanuatu.

Everyone is welcome to join us for any or all of these study sessions.

So that we have enough resources, please let Rev. Elizabeth know if you're considering participating,
